Everyday Evesham Guest Column by ETSD Superintendent

This column appeared in last Friday's Township newsletter. Sharing it here as it speaks about the threads that weave us together: our district mission, our community, school budget, next year's ballot question, and more.

October Abilities Recognition Month Calendar and events continued

Today marks our first Official Challenge Day, our Physical Therapy Posture Challenge. Please check in tomorrow at 10:21 am on the Evesham Township Facebook Page...plenty of photos to like and share! Remember, prizes will be given for the most liked photos! Tomorrow, October 8th, also marks World Physical Therapy Day. Please join the Facebook page at 10:21 am as Advisory Board Member Kimberly Touch Rinaldi interviews Evesham Township School District Physical Therapist Karen Preston, along with amazing students from Marlton Middle School—Giuliana Rinaldi, Ben Cohen, Lukas Petrakis and Jacqueline Stalcup—as they step up to the physical therapy challenges Ms. Preston gives them. Also joining is Mrs. Amanda Keane from Marlton Middle School. The month's 2nd Challenge (for October 14th) is in Celebration of Individuals born with that extra chromosome that causes Down Syndrome. It's our Mismatched Sock Day Challenge! Socks? Yes, because chromosomes look like socks and the more unique the better! So, go pull out all those unmatched socks from the laundry and save them for Friday! Remember to post photos wearing mismatched socks to events@evesham-nj.gov and indicate "10/14 Mismatched Sock Challenge". Also check out this great event this Sunday at the Linc <https://buddywalk.chop.edu/>, all are welcome!
